I note hereunder for record and needful action the following sanctioned arrangements regarding houses belonging to the State in the Bangalore High Ground:-

1.Melville House.

This was till recently my official residence. I have now removed to my new private house opposite the Golf Ground and I am not likely to require Melville House hereafter for my residence. Melville House has under Her Highness' sanction been assigned for the occupation of the 2nd. Princess and Lieutenant Colonel Desaraj Urs, and it will be available for any other purpose, such as the official residence of the future Dewan, only when the Palace build or provide a separate house for the 2nd. Princess and Col. Desaraj Urs. Whatever is done to repair, alter or add to, Melville house when they occupy it, should of course be charged to the Palace Budget. Lt. Col. Desaraj Urs should be left to provide the garden and other establishments required. Her Highness fully recognises that the Dewan should always have an official residence, but what house should be assigned for this purpose for a future Dewan, will be decided hereafter.
